ANSWER OF
CONTINENTAL AIRLINES, INC.
IN SUPPORT OF TRANS WORLD AIRLINES'
MOTION TO COMPEL

TWA<sup>1</sup> has asked the Department to require Continental, Delta, Northwest and USAir to submit estimates of the net benefits of their proposals, including self-diversion, as required by the Evidence Request in Order 95-2-57. Continental supports TWA's request and agrees that self-diversion information should be required by March 27, 1995, so other applicants will have sufficient time to prepare appropriate rebuttal exhibits.

Determining which applicants will bring the most net benefit to the highly-restricted U.S.-Toronto market is critical to the Department's decision in this case.<sup>2</sup> The self-diversion information required by the Department's Evidence Request is essential to that determination.

For the foregoing reasons, Continental urges the Department to grant TWA's motion and direct all applicants to submit self-diversion information by March 27.

Respectfully submitted,

CROWELL & MORING
